Hawaiian Gazette.

TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1886.

HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE.

SESSION OF 1886.

FIFTY-NINTH DAY.

MONDAY, July 12th.

The Assembly convened at the usual hour this morning pursuant to adjournment from the 10th inst. After prayer and the reading of the minutes had been concluded, attention was given to the presentation of the following petitions:

By Representative Castle from residents of the district of Wailuku that Government lands adjoining Kuleana be sold to owners of the latter if they desire them.
To committee on Public Lands.

By Representative Kekoa, from residents of Puna: 1. That the dog tax be reduced to fifty cents. 2. That the tenants living on konohiki lands pay an annual tax of $5. Tabled for consideration with tax bills.

By Representative Kankau from residents of Kaanapali: 1. That parents having large families be paid a bonus of $30 per annum by the Government. To Judiciary Committee. 2. That the law requiring licenses to be taken out for stallions be repealed. This last petition having been repeated several years back.

Hon. J. O. Dominis from the Enrollment Committee reported that His Majesty had signed the following bills: 1. To regulate the practice in the escheat of lands to the Hawaiian Government. 2.
An Act supplementary to article 26, chapter 9, of the Civil Code, relating to the prevention of smuggling. 3. An Act to authorize the payment of salaries and other expenses of the Government to the 31st day of August.

Representative Aholo from the Finance Committee, presented, in the Hawaiian language only, a majority report of that committee on the resolution that, "the Finance Committee be instructed to examine into the payment of money to the Japanese Inspector during the present period without authority, and to make a report thereon without delay." The report stated that, the committee, on inquiry, had obtained the information that the Inspector has been paid a salary for the last two years; that he was paid $750 for April, May and June last; that the draft on the Minister of Finance was dated the 30th of June, and the money paid on the 2nd of July, and that the draft was issued by the former Minister of Interior, Chas.
T. Gulick. They are of the opinion that the money was paid under the last Appropriation Bill of last session, but they find nothing in that act regarding the pay of a Japanese Inspector; therefore they consider the money was paid without authority of law.

Representative Dickey from the same committee presented the following minority report:

"Your committee finds that the sum of two thousand six hundred dollars has been paid out by the Minister of Finance upon drafts of the Minister of the Interior since the 31st day of March last, under the head of "Encouragement of Japanese Immigration." Of this, seven hundred and fifty dollars were paid to the Japanese Inspector and the balance to the other employees of the Immigration Bureau without authority of law and directly contrary to the article 15 of the Constitution, and to the Appropriation Bill of the last session of the Legislature. Two hundred and fifty dollars of the money paid to said Japanese Inspector was on July 2, 1886, after the present Ministry had taken its portfolios.
The Minister of Finance therefore misinformed this Assembly when he stated that the payment had been made during the incumbency of his predecessor. The obligation was incurred by the late Minister of the Interior, but the money was paid by the late Minister of Finance, and after all authority given to pay out money, even in exceptional cases, under the last Appropriation Bill, had ceased to exist. This was not such an exceptional case, but if it had been it would have been unallowable, as the date fixed in said Appropriation Bill after which nothing could be paid was June 30, 1886. Your committee recommend that the difference between the amounts unlawfully paid these employees and the amounts to which they may actually become entitled by virtue of the Appropriation Bill of this session, shall be refunded by them or deducted from the next payment made them; and that such a penalty be attached to the payment of money contrary to the provisions of the Appropriation Bill as may deter future officers from transgressing.

Both reports were received and laid on the table for the present.

Under suspension of the rules, Rep.
Castle read for the first time a bill, relative to returns of officers on court processes. To second reading.

Representative Kalua from the committee on Public Lands, presented a report on the petition of one Kainapua a resident of Kalihi who claims the sum of $2,500 land damages by the opening of the Kamehameha Road. Upon careful consideration of the case, the committee recommend that the sum of $500 be inserted in the Appropriation Bill for the purpose of payment to petitioner, in full of his claim. Approved.

Representative Castle read for the first time, a bill to amend chapter 28, Session Laws of 1882, relative to the acknowledgments to instruments. To second reading.

Representative Castle offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS: There is a bill or bills before the Legislative Assembly pending, for the licensing of opium, etc., and there exists a strong public opinion on the question both for and against the license, and it is important that this Assembly be furnished with full information on the matter in all respects; therefore

Resolved, That a committee of five members be appointed for the purpose of collecting and laying before this Assembly such information as may be obtainable relative to the matter of licensing, cultivating and use of opium, and that such committee be instructed to meet publicly and invite all persons interested to appear and make known any facts in their possession relative to the subject, and that such committee report as fully as possible within two weeks hereafter.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs said he could see very little objection to the resolution, except that it would be entirely abortive. There were no persons in this country interested in the cultivation of poppy, and unless persons engaged in smuggling opium into the country appeared before the committee, he did not see how was to give information. He did not think that those engaged in smuggling opium were likely to attend and give information to this committee. There was nothing whatever in the law which prevented the cultivation of the poppy, therefore he did not see what advantage was to be gained from persons saying whether they thought the cultivation of opium would be proper or otherwise. The question narrowed itself down to whether it was better to license opium or not; whether the law prohibiting the importation of opium should be repealed and licenses be granted? He personally was decidedly in favor of licensing opium. It would add considerably to the revenue and in his opinion would not increase the consumption one bit.

Representative Thurston said they had heard the Minister of Foreign Affairs make his maiden speech and it was very disappointing. Being the editor of a newspaper they naturally expected him to have given a straightforward argument, but instead he has treated them to a miserable quibble. It was no use to appoint a committee of enquiry, (according to the Minister) because they could not get persons engaged in smuggling opium to appear. That was simply trifling with the meaning of the English word "interested."

The Appropriation Bill, sometimes held to be the most important subject before the Legislature, did not affect the life of the nation as did the opium business. This resolution was intended to provide a means to get information on the question from persons who could give it. This was not the time to discuss the opium question, but it was the time for all persons to say whether they believed in licensing it or not. This was the time to look at the question fairly and squarely from every point of view. The Minister of Foreign Affairs had come into the Assembly to treat this question in the same way that he did in the newspaper of which he was editor, worshipping the very dirt that Claus Spreckels walked on. If the Minister believed in licensing opium let him bring in his arguments, and let him not go on insinuating that other people were dishonest because they disagreed with him. The resolution being intended for the purpose of gaining information, it seemed to him that this was not the time for quibbling such as the Minister of Foreign Affairs had indulged in.

Representative Brown considered that the presentation of the resolution was premature, there was no opium bill up for consideration at present. Moved that the resolution be tabled for consideration with bills on the subject.

The Minister of the Interior considered that the resolution was a good one. He then digressed and took the part of the Minister of Foreign Affairs,
